

Installation view

1-54 New York

1-54 New York returns for its fourth edition at Pioneer Works, Brooklyn between the 4 – 6 May 2018. With 21 participating galleries, 7 special projects and an extensive public program, the fair will live up to its claim to create space for dialogue and exchange.

1-54 Special Projects Ralph Ziman. Photo: Ann Mbuti

By Ann Mbuti
5. May 2018

INSTALLATION VIEW

In recent years, the art fair has not only made a name for itself in the international art hub New York. With Marrakech (since 2018) and London (2013) as other venues, 1-54 offers the year and the world a glimpse of what's happening in the continent's contemporary art scene and its diaspora. The 1-54 Contemporary African Art Fair New York is on until 6th May.

1-54 Special Projects Ralph Ziman. Photo: Ann Mbuti

1-54 Special Projects Ralph Ziman. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Lawrence Lemaoana, Afronova Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Alighiero Boetti, Burning in Water Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Anton Kannemeyer, Huberty & Breyne Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Aboudia, Jack Bell Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Omar Bey, Elmarsa Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbut

Yinka Shonibare MBE, James Cohan Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Dimitri Fagbohoun, Officine dell'Immagine. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Phoebe Boswell, Sapar Contemporary. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Kyle Meyer, Yossi Milo Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Pieter Hugo, Yossi Milo Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Uthman Wahaab (left), Sapar Contemporary; Rikki Wemega-Kwawu, Aicon Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Admire Kamudzengerere with Rachel Monosov, Catinca Tabacaru Gallery. Photo: Ann Mbuti

Malala Andrialavidrazana (left) & Emo de Medeiros, 50 Golborne.
Photo: Ann Mbuti

Source : <https://contemporaryand.com/magazines/1-54-new-york/>